SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring the 122nd Fighter Wing of the Indiana Air National Guard.

Whereas, The 122nd Fighter Wing of the Indiana Air National Guard, based in Fort Wayne, has flown fighter jet missions across the world;

Whereas, Sometimes these missions have taken them into battle zones;

Whereas, But for nearly 28 years, the 122nd Fighter Wing has never lost a pilot or a plane, the longest active streak for any unit in the nation flying the F-16 Fighting Falcon;

Whereas, In recognition for its outstanding safety record, Lockheed Martin, which provides the jets, presented a Unit Safety Award to the 122nd Fighter Wing for flying more than 60,000 hours without an accident that resulted in the loss of a plane or a pilot;

Whereas, Brigadier General Richard Clevenger, chief of staff for the Indiana Air National Guard, credits the outstanding safety record to "daily, professional teamwork"; and

Whereas, It is through the effort of brave men and women like the members of the 122nd Fighter Wing that our country continues to provide a beacon for freedom to shine throughout the world: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

1       SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly recognizes the
2       accomplishments of the 122nd Fighter Wing of the Indiana Air
3       National Guard and thanks them for their service to their state and their 4       nation.

5       SECTION 2. That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the 6       Secretary of the Senate to the 122nd Fighter Wing of the Indiana
7       National Guard and Brigadier General Richard Clevenger.
